Institute

Canvas is an online classroom where students can

- view assignments
- submit assignments
- take tests/quizzes
- access course materials
- check their grades
- send teachers or classmates messages

Accessing Canvas Classes: Dashboard

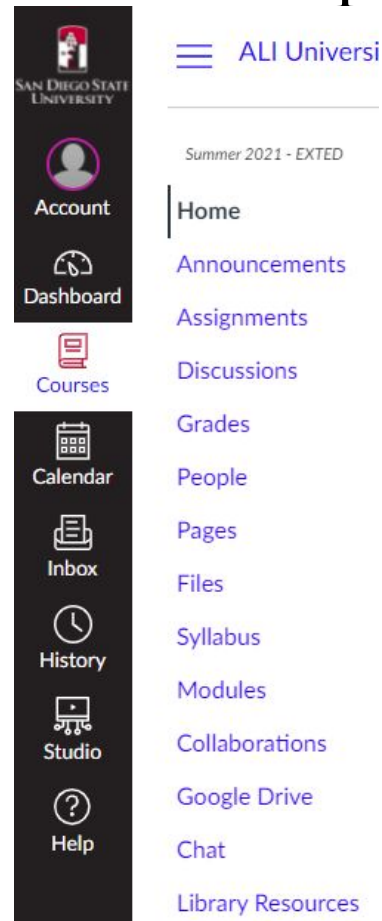

- Every class you are enrolled in will have one dedicated Canvas online shell.
- To view classes, click on “Dashboard.” This will show all your classes.

Using Canvas

- Every class in Canvas may have a slightly different look, but all classes will have a menu that lets students see important information such as:

- Announcements
- Assignments
- Discussions
- Grades
- People
- Files
- Syllabus
- Quizzes
- Pages

Submitting Assignments

- Some assignments may be turned in on Canvas. To do this, click “Start Assignment.”

Individualism vs Collectivism Representations [▲]

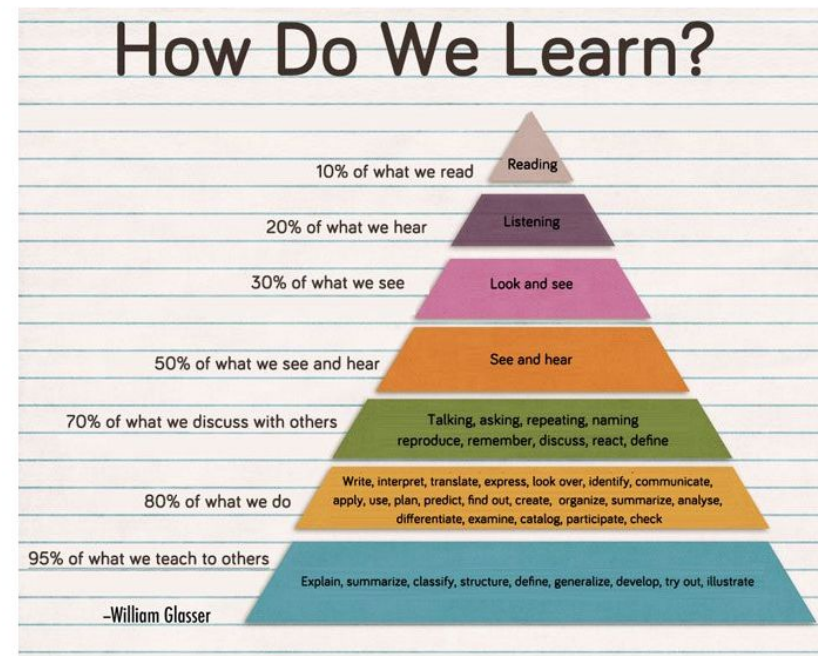

Start Assignment

Due Jun 17 by 6:45pm Points 5 Submitting a text entry box

Instructions: Choose 2 boxes you checked for Individualism vs Collectivism ↓. Find 2 images that represent each of your experiences in that box. Be prepared to explain your image and experience.

Example:

5/6: Learning how to do vs Learning how to learn

Submitting a Discussion

- Some assignments may be turned in as a “Discussion.” To do this, click “reply.”

This is a graded discussion: 5 points possible due May 31

 DISCUSS: First Thoughts 4 4
Kelly Metz-Matthews

Instructions: Now that you have an idea what the book is about, share what you are excited/afraid/nervous about when you think of reading this book. For example, maybe you think it looks interesting, but the vocabulary looks hard. Or maybe you think the topic looks boring, but you think you will learn a lot. Whatever it is, share your first thoughts in one paragraph.
